

Attention Caspian residents:

The City of Caspian is issuing an emergency city wide let run. Please let your water run from one of your faucets (stream the size of a pencil).

Your average monthly usage will be used for billing.

Please keep your water running until further notice.

The City is not responsible for any frozen or broken water lines.